

I will keep you right here

I will keep you
right here
in merging
and in an ending

You
are in dust and beneath your feet
something
is vibrating
it's warm
it's a motor that is still running

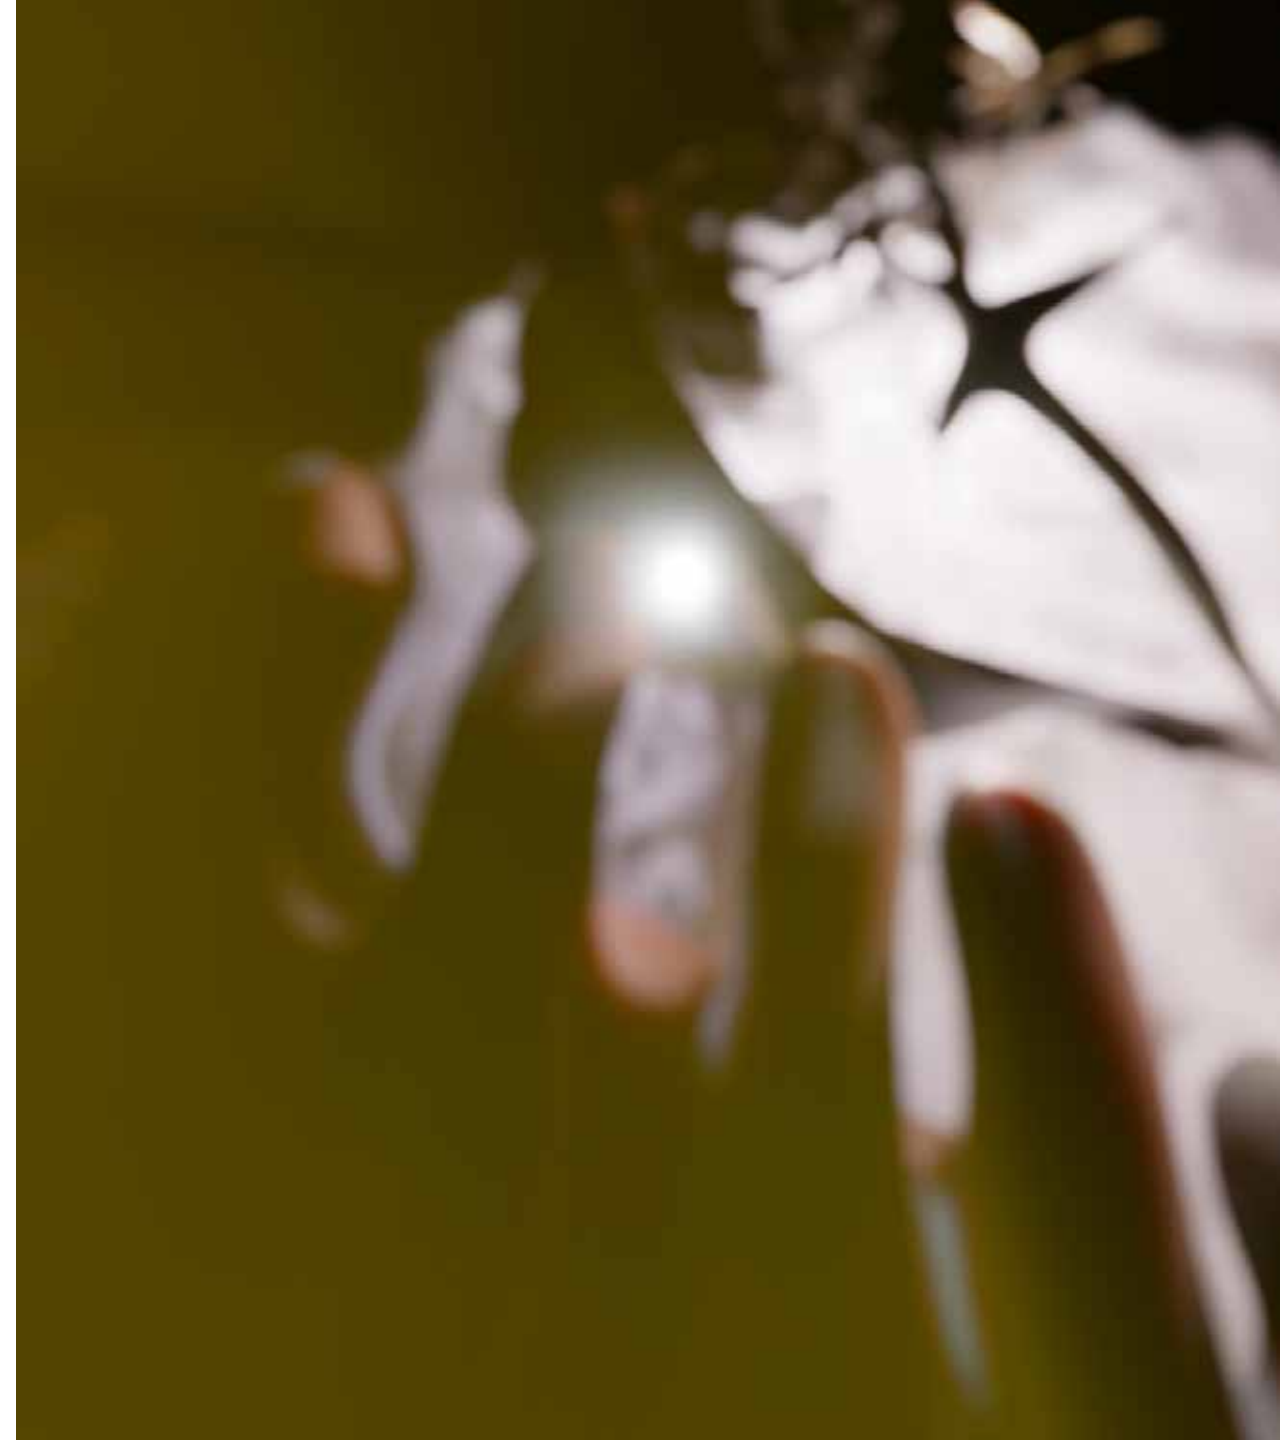

It's air
connecting dust
built by pixels

Because you are inside
of a breath
that is being taken away

You
are between the inflow
and the escaping
of air

Here
I will keep you
within intimate distance in a merging
where I can see you
and
in an ending
